PRISONERS DELIVERED TO U. S. AT EL PASO

Carranza Weakened and Has Delivered the Twenty-three Prisoners at Carrizal to the United States Authorities at El Paso—The Negro Troopers Were Scarcely Clad and Did Not Seem to Appreciate Their Position—This Action Makes a Break Less Likely Though the Crisis Is Not Passed—The New Mexico Guardsmen Have Crossed Into Mexico to Strengthen General Pershing's Lines—Preparations for Any Possible Movement Were Continued at San Antonio Today—News of the Release of the Prisoners Did Not Lower the High Pressure in Military Preparations. Carranza Has Not Yet Answered as to His Policy.

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—Twenty-three negroes of the tenth cavalry and Lem Spillsbury, a Mormon scout, captured by the Mexicans at Carrizal and confined in the Chihuahua penitentiary, were brought to the border at noon and turned over to the American authorities. The prisoners were dressed in the scantiest and most nondescript garb. One wore trousers only, another merely a shirt. All were serious except one who broadly smiled. Spillsbury appeared anxious.

FIRST GUARDSMEN OVER.

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, N. M., June 29.—The New Mexico guardsmen crossed the line into Mexico last night to strengthen General Pershing's lines on reports of concentration of Carranzistas, making the first contingent of the National Guard to go over.

PRISONERS NOT ARRIVED.

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—Although all preparations in the matter of guard and escort was made for the arrival of the twenty-three Americans from Chihuahua City, who were expected to arrive at 8 o'clock in Juarez, they had not arrived at 10:30 this morning. Mexican officials said the special train had been delayed.

Preparations Continue.

(By Associated Press.)

San Antonio, Texas, June 29.—Staff officers were busy today shaping the hourly increasing army for a possible movement. Notice of the release of the prisoners at Chihuahua City did not lower the high pressure in military preparations. Notwithstanding this order, Carranza has not released his vigilance and his troops continue concentrating south of Matamoros and other points, according to border reports.

Renew Offer of Mediation.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 29.—Ignacio Calderon, minister of Bolivia, and Rafael Zaldivar, minister of Salvador, renewed their efforts with Secretary of State Lansing to learn whether the United States will entertain mediation offers in the Mexican difficulty. Secretary Lansing said he could not discuss it now in the absence of official information regarding the release of the Chihuahua prisoners, or of Carranza's final reply.

Crisis Still Imminent.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 29.—The danger of an immediate break with Mexico was relieved by the release of the prisoners. Until Carranza replies to the demand for a declaration of his policy, however, the crisis is only less imminent than before. The troops will be kept in Mexico and a large border patrol will be maintained and augmented as planned.

Refugees Slipped Away.

(By Associated Press.)

Galveston, Texas, June 29.—Under cover of night to avoid consumption of Nafarrate's threat to hold Americans as hostages, seven hundred and seventy-five Americans and British refugees boarded the United States tender Dixie off Tampico early Sunday, embarking for the United States, arriving here today.

RETURNING TO BRAZOS.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carroll and family who were former citizens of Harvey, in this county, have returned to Brazos County to reside. Mr. Carroll and his estimable family left this county some time ago, going to Hall County to reside, but found there was no place like home and have returned. The Eagle with their many friends welcome them back.

NEW SECRETARY HERE.

Mr. W. A. McElroy of Gilmer, the new secretary for the Bryan Commercial Club, arrived in the city today and will enter upon his duties at once. Mr. McElroy is a pleasant, affable gentleman, an expert in his line and comes to Bryan with the highest recommendations both as to his public ability and to his Christian citizenship. The Eagle welcomes Mr. McElroy to Bryan and bespeaks for him a cordial reception by the people of the city.

Mrs. Morey Leaves for El Paso.

Austin, Tex., June 29.—Mrs. Morey, wife of Captain L. S. Morey, Troop K, Tenth United States Cavalry, wounded in the battle of Carrizal, having received a telegram from Captain Morey that he would be in El Paso today, left this city Wednesday morning for that city. The telegram also stated that Captain Morey was "very well."

PAINFULLY SHOT WHILE HUNTING

Charles H. Tabor is Very Painfully Wounded by Discharge From Shotgun.

Yesterday just before noon while out hunting on his father's ranch on the Navasota River, Charles Tabor, son of Captain and Mrs. O. L. Tabor, was very painfully injured by the discharge of a shotgun. The accident occurred in a boat on the lake at Captain Tabor's ranch. Young Tabor was in company with a bunch of his young friends and was fishing and hunting on the lake and while fishing in the boat he saw a bull frog across on the bank and reached his full length to the bottom of the boat and took hold of a shotgun with the barrel pointed toward him, when he started pulling the gun it was accidentally discharged and the load of bird shot struck his right wrist and hit him a glancing lick in the right breast and side of his body. The fact that young Tabor was stretched out his full length when the shell exploded is given as the reason for him not being killed instantly. However, the glancing lick only inflicted a very painful wound.

A physician was immediately summoned and the wounds dressed. The young man is getting along nicely but it will be some days before he is able to be out.

CASEMENT GUILTY AND MUST DIE

Jury Decided Fate of Irish Revolution-ist in Less Than One Hour's Deliberation.

London, June 29.—Sir Roger Casement was found guilty of high treason today and sentenced to death. The end of the historic trial came at 4 o'clock this afternoon when the jury, which was out less than an hour, brought in a verdict against the Irish knight.

Daniel Bailey, a private soldier who was being held as an accomplice, was placed on trial immediately after the Casement verdict was read, but on an instructed "not guilty" verdict he was immediately released.

GERMANS REPULSED HEAVY LOSSES

Violent Bombardment Lasted Entire Day but French Machine Guns Saved Their Positions.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 29.—After a violent bombardment which lasted the entire day, the Germans attacking the French positions northwest of Thiamont were repulsed yesterday with heavy losses, according to the authorities at Paris. The French machine guns and curtain fire are declared to have devastated the attackers.

Russians Take 10,000 Prisoners.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 29.—Fighting on the western front yesterday attained proportions of considerable violence at various points, the German war office announced, but the British and French attacks were repulsed at every point. The Russian troops fighting at Volhynia yesterday took 10,000 prisoners, including 200 officers, according to Petrograd officials.

MINORS DON'T NEED PARENTS CONSENT

May Become Soldiers if They Like, if 18 to 21 Years Old—Was Vexing Point.

Men between 18 and 21 years of age may be enlisted in the Texas National Guard for border and foreign duty without the consent of their parents, according to advices received Wednesday from Lieutenant Colonel John S. Hoover to Lieutenant Claude Sears in Houston.

The telegram of Colonel Hoover follows:

Lieutenant Claude Sears, Recruiting Officer, Texas National Guard, Houston, Texas.

San Antonio, Texas, June 28, 1916.—You are advised that it is not necessary to obtain consent of parents for enlistment in Texas National Guard between ages of 18 and 21. Hoover, Colonel Hoover is in charge of the recruiting service of the Texas National Guard.—Houston Post.
